Remains James Service in Last Resting Place

Full ritualistic services of the Masonic order were paid to the memory of the late James Service this afternoon, when funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock from the Masonic Temple. Scores of old-time friends were present to pay their last respects to a man whom they had known and admired during this life, and who was a real pioneer of the west and Nevada where he had resided for 55 years. Many floral offerings covered the casket showing the esteem in which deceased was held. Interment took place in the Masonic plot at the local cemetery.

SAGEBRUSH IS LAUDATORY OF DAILY BONANZA

Says Spirit of Moonshine and Other Papers Is Venomous and Opinions Are Harmful.

The editorial which appeared in the Bonanza, entitled "Moonshine Scribe Has Perverted Mind," has met with the unqualified approval of the faculty and students of the University of Nevada. This was made plain in the issue of the "Sagebrush," under issue of April 20, wherein the leading article of the first page is commendatory of the efforts of the editor of the Tonopah Daily Bonanza in expounding and championing the cause of the students.

The article wherein laudatory remarks are made of the Bonanza editorial, defending the flower of this state from the insults and abuse of a few editors with perverted minds, such as we find at the helm of the moonshine sheet down the street, is most timely. It might be well to state that the Sagebrush reproduced, word for word the editorial appearing in the Bonanza.

The Sagebrush article follows:

"The recent Razzberry edition of the Sagebrush has been the cause of comment by several of the state papers. One impartial and sensible editorial published upon it was that of the Reno Evening Gazette; others devoted themselves to a withering destructive criticism. During the school year 28 previous editions of the Sagebrush had appeared on their exchange tables without provoking comment, but one innocuous issue in red ink served to call their attention to the fact that the university was being editorially neglected. Their criticism took the reverse turn above mentioned. They failed to note the fact that the paper had, in addition to the features which they found objectionable, an abundance of good humor, a number of very clever original ideas, and that from a journalistic point of view its appearance was excellent.

"It has been the conviction of the Red Staff that the criticisms were not fair, that the spirit of the publication was wholly disregarded. They have been reluctant to take up their own defense, but are encouraged to find that their point of view is shared by an outsider capable of speaking with authority. The editorial below is reprinted from the Tonopah Daily Bonanza and is written by W. W. Booth, editor of that publication. Mr. Booth is one of the most capable newspaper men in the state of Nevada. He is thoroughly acquainted with conditions at the university and maintains a special interest in the young people who attend the institution from his section of the state. His is still the youthful spirit of the college man."

LOCAL MEN SAY HORNSILVER IS COMING CAMP

Hanson and Link Think District Destined to Take Rank Among Big Producers.

"Hornsilver is certainly assuming the life of a real boom mining camp," remarked Henry Hanson, president of the Silver Dyke Mining company, who arrived in Tonopah this morning, accompanied by T. C. Link, the secretary-treasurer of the corporation. "You would be surprised at the activity that is noticeable in the new camp and we will have a population of at least 200 souls within the next 30 days, or else I miss my guess. The mineral discoveries that are being made in this stimulated matters in no small way, and it is now only the question of a little perseverance until a number of shipping mines will be developed."

Mr. Link stated that the shaft on the Rosetta had attained a depth of 40 feet and that a solid body of quartz had been followed that shows assays of from $40 to $68 a ton, with gold predominating. This is going to prove a mine without a dump, in the opinion of many mining men, as it is expected in due course of time to send all the dump matter into a milling plant. The Silver Dyke Mining company has not yet "spotted" a shaft, but trenching is in progress that the most likely point may be decided upon. From trenching, the vein has been found to be a monster and for over 50 feet across assays can be secured that vary from $4.20 to $20.

CONDITIONS IN WEST LEADING THOSE IN EAST

Says Money Is Anxiously Awaiting Place for Investment in Sound Securities.

"Business and financial conditions in the west are better than in the east," remarked Letson Balliet, economic engineer, who returned from a three weeks visit to the coast this morning. "Eastern business is reported slightly better, due to business coming from the constructive and development progress in the west."

"The stock market is dead, simply because there is no one who wants to buy stocks that will not produce an income. Those who own income stocks are hanging on to them. Whenever a few shares of income stock appear they are immediately picked up and disappear from the market."

"Never before has money been so anxiously seeking a place for investment, but it is all in the hands of bankers and financiers who demand an assurance of its safe return with an income. One financier expressed it tersely when he said: 'I don't want to invest a dollar in any stock where I must depend upon finding someone else with money who is crazier than I, before I can make any profit on my investment. At the crazy people who bought that kind of stock have been milked dry long ago.'"

"Development and construction stocks are in great demand. In San Francisco there are 54 big buildings planned or in course of construction between Montgomery street (Palace Hotel) and the Ferry. Among them is the 22-story Standard Oil building, the 16-story building for the Matson Navigation company, the London & Globe Insurance building, the Santa Fe building, the Pacific Gas & Electric building—all over 16 stories. New theatres, garages and apartment houses are going up everywhere. Oakland has the same condition. A new $4,000,000 theater in Oakland is one of the improvements of that city."

"The great hydro-electric projects of the Colorado, Pitt, Feather, Green, Snake and Columbia rivers, and the Turlock and Merced projects, are indications of the fact that money is seeking investment, and failing to find income investments upon the market, it has turned to constructive and development investments that it may build its own income for the future."

"Big money is going into Grass Valley, Calif.; Rocky Bar, Ia.; Virginia City, Nev., and elsewhere, for development of future incomes."

"Interest in legitimate mining development is increasing. Nothing that can assure a safe return of the investment with a profit is turned down. 'On April 1 the idle cash, in excess of the legal reserve, on deposit in banks of the United States was $1,900,000,000, every dollar of which wants an income investment.'"

AMUSEMENTS

DUSTIN FARNUM AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"The Devil Within," with Dustin Farnum in the leading role, will be the attraction at the Butler today. It is a powerful picturization of a brutal sea captain's downfall and his atonement for his past. The captain, portrayed by the star, is followed by a seeming curse. He settles down to a life of normalcy only to lose his wife and child. Then, as if this were not enough punishment, his sole remaining interest in life, his nephew, turns to be as brutal as the captain once was. The nephew is deprived of his first finds peace in the regeneration of the young man. The captain is an excellent character study, and was well chosen for Dustin Farnum, giving him ample room to display his heroic strength and his deep emotional powers.

Added to the program, screen snapshots of famous movie stars, in professional and private life.

Tomorrow, Viola Dana, in her latest picture, "The Fourteenth Lover," together with Larry Semon and his beautiful former leading lady, Lucille Carlisle, in the most expensive comedy ever made, "The Show."

Monday, Rudolph Valentino.

Looking for entertainment? Then join the crowd and attend the weekly hop given by the Eagles Saturday night. Usual six-piece orchestra will furnish the music. A21-2f.
